ORDER:

In her representation first read above, Smt M.Revathi, IFS (1996) (on child care leave) has stated that she has served as DFO in the territorial (Kadapa) and functional divisions (Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams, SF and SS) of the Forest department in the State from 2001-2004 and 2006-2010. She had also served as Executive Director, Scheduled Castes Corporation, Kadapa during 2004-06. She has thus been exposed to multiple profiles in State Administration in the middle managerial position. The Member of Service has further stated that that recently, she has been promoted as Conservator of Forests (2011) in the State Forest Department, Commensurate with the job responsibilities of this higher managerial position in the State administration, she perceive a need to broaden her professional perspectives and achieve conceptual understanding of the various strands of administrative theory, public systems management, public policy/analysis, human resources management, e-governance, de-centralization and disaster management in the Indian context to supplement her work experience so far acquired in the State. A deeper understanding of the theoretical underpinnings of public administration shall enable her to synthesize the concepts, sharpen her professional skills and apply to governance issues pertaining to development and transformational issues in rural society, inclusive and sustainable development through participation and mainstreaming gender perspectives into development processes given her educational background in agriculture and professional experience in working with forest dwelling population in the State from 2001-2011. With the above objectives, she has explored possible educational courses offered by various Universities and found that the two year Masters degree course in Public Administration offered by the Indira Gandhi national Open University (IGNOU) beginning July 2012 (through its advertisement in the National dailies in the second week of May 2012) serves her goals in this regard. The Member of Service has further stated that in view of the short time duration for the admission process, she has applied for the two year Masters degree course in Public Administration offered by the Indira Gandhi National Open University Regional Centre, Sarkhej-Gandhinagar highway, Charrodi, Ahmedabad vide her appln. no 18357, dated 29.5.2012 and she shall be receiving the admission offer for the above course from IGNOU in the last week of June 2012. In her representation third above, Smt. M. Revathi, IFS has further submitted that she has received the admission offer for the above course from IGNOU and the course formalities. The classes were commenced as per schedule, which she is attending and requested to grant her study leave from 1.7.2012 to 31.3.2014 for the above course.

(p.t.o)

2. Government after consideration of the request of the Member of Service, hereby grant Study Leave to Smt. M. Revathi, IFS (1996) for the period from 1.7.2012 to 31.3.2014, in terms of Regulations 3 and 4 of the All India Services (Study Leave) Regulations, 1960.
3. During the period of her study leave, Smt. M. Revathi, IFS (1996) shall draw leave salary, equal to the pay she would have drawn while on duty before proceeding on study leave in addition to D.A. and H.R.A. in terms of Regulation 10(2)(a) of All India Services (Study Leave) Regulations, 1960.
4. Smt. M. Revathi, IFS (1996) would have continued in the Super Time Scale of I.F.S. in the rank of Conservator of Forests, but for her proceeding on study leave. The leave salary during the study leave period of Smt. M. Revathi, IFS (1996) shall be drawn and paid to the Member of Service from where she is proceeding on study leave.
5. The Member of Service is informed that if she resigns or retire from service without returning to duty after the study leave or within a period of three years after such return to duty or fails to complete the course of study and is unable to furnish the certificate referred to in Appendix-B of the A.I.S.(Study Leave) Regulations, she shall be required to refund the amount of leave salary in terms of Regulation (9)(2) of the said Regulations, 1960.
6. The Member of Service shall execute a bond as required under Regulation 9 of A.I.S.(Study Leave) Regulations, 1960 before she proceeds on study leave. The Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Head of Forest Force), A.P., Hyderabad shall obtain the Bond in Appendix "A" of A.I.S.(Study Leave) Regulations, 1960, from the Member of Service and furnish the same to this Department, before relief of the Member of Service.
